DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE WORKS OVERTIME!

Torrid Thursday Nights Cause for Alarm

Two senior games were abandoned last Saturday, and many players were reported as a result of violence toward opponents and referees.

"Soccer News" goes to press at day-break on Wednesday mornings, so last Thursday night's proceedings cannot be reported here. This is merely a part resume of what the Disciplinary Committee had to face up to this week.

TROUBLE AT GEELONG.

In its home game with Sunshine City, Geelong's goalkeeper was sent off for misconduct, and flanker Stoop went into goal. When Sunshine City was taking a penalty, Stoop infringed by moving before the ball was kicked, and Referee Pedler signalled for the kick, which had missed, to be retaken. Spectators then rushed on to the field and menaced the referee, and only the quick intervention of Geelong Committeemen and players prevented what may have been a serious assault. The game was then abandoned. Further attempts were made to attack the referee in the dressing rooms, and later when he left the ground.

ABANDONMENT AT PRESTON.

Referee Lamb reported that he had sent a Coburg player off, and was still writing his name down when another Coburg player attempted to attack him. This player was also sent off; but when a third player menaced him, and the goalkeeper also showed signs of joining in, the referee abandoned the game.

At the time, the game had been in progress 80 minutes, and the score stood at 2-1 in favour of Preston.

ZAKOMAROK IN THE NEWS AGAIN!

Bell of Slavia Knocked Out

Stormy petrel of local soccer, Steve Zakomarok, was reported to have knocked out his opponent, Bill Bell, Slavia's outside right, in the Slavia-J.U.S.T. match last Saturday.

Conflicting reports as to what happened on the ground, and in and near the dressing rooms, have poured in. Some spectators state, and others deny, that Bill provoked Steve by kicking him just before being knocked down. However, the referee saw only the knock-out, and immediately sent Zakomarok off.

Statements regarding events after Steve left the field vary to such an extent that no clear picture is obtainable, but apparently another fracas occurred in or near the dressing rooms.

The case will have been dealt with on Thursday night, after this issue had gone to press.

LEAGUE MANAGEMENT.
Following a protest by Yallourn S.C., the League has ordered a re-play of the match, Hellenic v. Yallourn, 2nd Division, which was played on Saturday, May 19, 1956.

ACCOUNTS.
Council has ruled that all accounts be finalised by Clubs not later than May 24, 1956. At that date no less than 22 Clubs had still to meet their commitments. Any Club which has not since finalised its account must do so immediately.

ANOTHER BLACK DAY!

There are numerous people in Victoria who support other football codes, and who, needlessly fearing the progress of soccer, talk, write and work against the round ball code.

These efforts from without to destroy soccer, however, are mild and puny compared with those of that small element of ruffians, both in the game and on the touchlines, whose stupid and selfish actions blacken soccer with a day such as last Saturday, June 9.

Kicking or punching opponents, or arguing with, abusing, or attacking referees, can make a farce out of what is recognised as the world's most scientific game of football.

THIS MUST NEVER BE LOST SIGHT OF — SOCCER WAS NEVER DESIGNED AS A GAME FOR LARRIKINS!

"Soccer News" suggests that, unless the Disciplinary Committee makes it known that any player found guilty of kicking another player deliberately, or menacing or assaulting a referee, will be banished from soccer for life even for a first offence, and puts this edict into immediate effect, soccer will continue to have these white ants destroying the code's structure from within.

It is further suggested that, until League Management lays down stricter rules for spectator control — ropes to keep supporters at least six yards from touchlines, police protection and penalties for Clubs who condone the continued presence of known unruly supporters — the game of soccer will be a target for the sneers and jeers of those whose only contact with the game lies in the jibes they read in the press.

A STRONG — EVEN RUTHLESS — STAND AGAINST RUFFIANISM MUST BE TAKEN NOW — OR NEVER!

VIC. TO CHALLENGE QUEENSLAND

F.A. Cup Will Be The Stake

The Victorian Soccer Council has decided to issue a challenge to Queensland, holder of the F.A. Cup, for the glamour trophy of Australian soccer.

Queensland took the Cup from New South Wales in Sydney during the Queen's Birthday week-end. At the same time, Victoria had inflicted two even more crushing defeats on another crack team from New South Wales, and it is held that Victoria thus becomes the logical contender for the Cup.

Olympic Park is now expected to become available to soccer in July, and, if Queensland accepts the challenge, efforts will be made to have the challenge round, normally played on the holder's home ground, transferred to Melbourne, and played as the opening game on the new soccer arena.

The Cup not only possesses great intrinsic value, but sentimental value, having been presented to Australian soccer over 30 years ago by the English Football Association.

New South Wales held the Cup for two years against all comers, having won it from Victoria in a round-robin carnival in 1954.

SUNSHINERS' REVELS

Don't forget Sunshine City's second annual Cabaret Ball, scheduled for next Wednesday night, June 20, at the Masonic Hall, Maribyrnong Road, Moonee Ponds.

For reservation enquiries, phone MM 2331, FY 1813, or LA 2143.

Hakoah Game Tomorrow

Hakoah will make its entry into the Dockerty Cup competition at Middle Park to-morrow afternoon.

The Blues have drawn a tartar — Preston, doughty leaders of the 3rd Division, whose goal percentage reads 35 for, and only 5 against, in 10 games. Hakoah can't relax for this one!

CZAUDERNA BACK TO FORM

Steve Czauderna marked his return to the senior team last week with his usual display of attractive 'keeping. Here he flies high to defend with a punch-out while the luckless Trentini, Juventus right winger, "cops the lot."

Sunday Games Voluntary

The Fixtures Committee has, at times, for special reasons, granted permission for League games to be played on a Sunday.

However, a home team which has been granted this dispensation must seek the voluntary consent of the away Club to the alteration of the fixture. Any attempt at compulsion is neither permissible nor desirable.

N.S.W. CRACKS DOWN ON VIOLENCE

Players Out for Life

Violence toward referees is not a peculiarity of any one locality — it would appear to be the secondary motive for the round ball game. Administrators everywhere are fighting this universal tendency, and there can only be one result — the thugs will be driven out of the game one by one.

The N.S.W.S.F.A. Limited makes a practice of sending out a general circular regarding serious soccer crimes. Here is the latest one, dated June 1:—

"Please take notice that a player of the Europa Soccer Club, to wit, Eugen Furi, whose last known address was 263 Bourke St., East Sydney, has been disqualified by this Association for life. He has been adjudged guilty of deliberately punching and kicking a referee in a fixture played under the jurisdiction of this Association.

"Take notice also that a player whose surname is Cyuricsh has been adjudged guilty of deliberately kicking a referee. The offence occurred in a trial match in which it is permissible for players to be tested before they are required to sign a registration form.

"As the player therefore was not a registered player with this Association, no suspension could be imposed, but the N.S.W.S.F.A. Ltd. has decided that at no time whatsoever during his life will he be accepted as a registered player with this Association."

CZECHOSLOVAKIA, POLAND SURVIVE

World Cup Soccer Popular

A large crowd saw the first rounds of the Laidlaw World Cup last Sunday, when Poland defeated Ukraine 3-0, and Czechoslovakia narrowly and luckily won from Germany 1-0.

The Toorak R.S.L. Memorial Trust Fund benefited by approximately £100 as their percentage of the gate money.

Ukraine, sponsored by Lions of the Metropolitan North Division, did exceptionally well to hold Poland 0-3, particularly since the team's regular goalie was on the injured list, and a player who is normally a right-winger was between the sticks.

Excitement ran high in the second half of the Czechoslovakia-Germany game. Soon after the interval, at which time both teams were scoreless, Joe Gottesman netted for the Czechs, who then led 1-0. The Germans then commenced a non-stop, high-speed attack which continued until the final whistle. Time and again with beautiful football they outfoxed the Czech defence and shot for goal — but without success. They hit the cross-bar and the uprights, and missed all kinds of scoring opportunities by sheer over-anxiety, including a penalty kick.

Sponsored by Allemania-Richmond, this was Germany's first appearance in the World Cup series, and its crowd-pleasing soccer will be well remembered.

The next Cup games will be played at Toorak Park on Sunday, July 1, when Ireland meets England at 1.30 p.m.; and Italy plays Israel in the second match, which will begin at 3 p.m.

Slavia Loses Player

Playing for Czechoslovakia in its World Cup match last Sunday, Ted Bialek, Slavia's centre forward, suffered a broken shoulder in a heavy fall, and is likely to be out of the game for some weeks.

Loss of Bialek could prove costly to Slavia, currently co-leaders of the 1st Division.

Trial Game Tomorrow

In preparation for their Laidlaw World Cup match on July 1, Ireland will play a practice match with Scotland at Middle Park to-morrow afternoon at 2 p.m.

Ireland is drawn to play England in their first-round match for the Cup.

Lester Huchinson, Box Hill's Secretary, has completed his Ladies' Relay Team, and is now free to commence on a soccer side. His fourth daughter, Janet, was born last week.

Albert de Keyzer, Wilhelmina's inside left, who suffered a serious head injury at the beginning of the season, is in training again, and may soon be seen back in the Windmills senior side.

Just when the Hakoah boys decide that "Bill" Blackley will henceforth be called by his given name, which is John, so that field calls would not prove confusing to the other Bills — Harburn and Sime — along comes new recruit, John Jones, another inside forward. What'll they call "Bill" now?

The same John Jones hails from Llandudno, in Wales, and played 1st Division soccer with Cardiff City. Hakoah has a new goalkeeper, too — Aldo Vitti, from Trieste, who has also played 1st Division football. He may be seen out with the Blues to-morrow.

Coburg's left half, W. Clements, hadn't mised a game for three years, and the boys figured it'd take at least a broken leg to get him out of the line-up. He was missing a couple of weeks ago, though. Tonsillitis!

Miro Roznetinsky, mine host of the Junction Hotel's dining room, President of Slavia and half-back for the same Club, and a Raider and Victorian ice hockey full-back, recently decided to give up his hardest job. He hung up his soccer boots.

Jim Frost's knee injury, which has kept him out of Preston's line-up since April, is on the mend, and Jim should be back at centre half for his Club within a week or two.

Box Hill finds an occasional trip to the country very enjoyable socially, and an unbeatable tonic for the Club's ego and morale. The team week-ended in Shepparton on the Queen's Birthday, and beat the local champions — the Shepparton Rovers — 7-0 on the Saturday, and a combined Northern Districts side 6-0 on the Monday.

FLY KICKS

SERIOUS SIDE OF SOCCER

WINGER

Danny Dobrilovic's shoulder, injured in Prahran's game with Juventus, may keep him out for the rest of the season. Lucky thing that Prahran has Alf Miesel up its sleeve — he gave an excellent display against Moreland last week.

Yallourn's teams still dogged by injuries. A very serious one occurred last Saturday when one of the Club's most promising Reserves, Valkenberg, suffered a fractured ankle in the last few minutes of the game against Prahran.

Candid Comment

by our

CAUSTIC COACH

"My club will never get anywhere until the Committee brushes up on its history. They've forgotten that steam has replaced wind."

When Division leaders meet on the field there are no beg pardons. Probably the hardest games last week were the abandoned Preston-Coburg duel and the Hayduk-Lions match. Miss Myra Paul, Lions' Assistant Secretary, reports that not a single one of her "heroes" — they won for her 4-2 — left the field unscathed.

Prahran has paid Coburg the compliment of naming its very best team for their Cup Tie to-day. In an attempt to stiffen their defence, Coach Charlie Petherick will strip and take the field at left half.

A bride and groom took the field for Hakoah last Saturday — Franz Streiberger and his bride, freshly married and still in wedding dress, were brought on to the ground to receive the good wishes of the Club expressed by its President, Mr. Jack Skolnik.

CUBERO MOVES UP IN MEDAL VOTING

Wemyss Increases Lead

Jose Cubero, J.U.S.T.'s inside left, gained two points in the "Argus" Best and Fairest Medal voting last Saturday. However, Bob Wemyss also added two points to his tally, and, with Dobrilovic injured and probably out for most of the balance of the season, Bob may already be in a winning position.

Players with five votes or more are listed below:

WILHELMINA EXPLAINS

Mr. J. Felix, Secretary of Wilhelmina Soccer Club, stated last Sunday that Mr. Tom Buist, of the Box Hill Club, was not wholly correct in the details supplied to "Soccer News" regarding the juniors' game at Survey Park, Richmond.

"We have the use of two grounds now," said Mr. Felix, "and we write to each Club which has a fixture with one of our teams as to where they should proceed. This will eradicate the inconvenience to players who go to the wrong ground.

"Stated simply, however, the Hawthorn ground will be used by our senior team and our 2nd Division Reserves, while Richmond is the home ground for our 3rd Division Reserve team and our juniors."

As to the state of the ground at Richmond on the day in question, Mr. Felix averred that it was probably no worse than most other grounds, including Rules grounds.

"Mr. Buist is partly right and partly wrong in stating that no ball was available," continued Mr. Felix. "A ball was available, but it was found to be defective. Mr. Buist's players were NOT there at 1.30 p.m. as he states, and we simply took advantage of the delay to procure another ball."

Mr. Felix feels that, to some extent, Mr. Buist is making a mountain out of a molehill.

"Box Hill sponsors more teams than we do," said Mr. Felix, "but is a much older Club than ours. Nevertheless, I'm sure Mr. Buist will agree with me that despite the lengthy experience of the Box Hill team committees, it is impossible to prevent an occasional detail from slipping out of gear."

FIRST DEFEAT IN TWO YEARS

From FRANK McIVER, Hon. Sec., L.V.A.

Morwell Soccer Club was trounced into second position on the ladder when it suffered its first League defeat since 1954 last week. This shock defeat was provided by the L.V.A.'s young team of giant-killers, Morwell Rangers, who have now beaten each of the three leading teams.

Top position on goal average goes once again to Newborough United, who downed the improving Eastern Rovers by the odd goal in three.

Complete results were:

Morwell Rangers d. Morwell, 9-1.
Moe United d. Yallourn "A", 7-1.
Tigers d. Sale United, 6-2.
Newborough U. d. Eastern R., 2-1.

First round of the Battle of Britain Cup will be played to-day. Here is the draw:

Morwell v. Morwell Rangers.
Moe United v. Tigers.
Newborough United v. Eastern R.
Yallourn "A" v. Sale United.

Brighton Social

The Brighton Soccer Club invites everybody to still another of their bright dance-socials which will take place next Saturday night in the Elsternwick Park Pavilion.

Mario Busidoni couldn't take the field for Slavia after all last week — he suffered a slight injury at work.

Stuart Beaton, who, as Secretary of the Association and the League Management Committee, and Chairman of Fixtures, has been cracking down on the Clubs for laxity in one way and another, could not exactly take exception at the Hellenic-Wilhelmina game last Saturday when a conscientious official, who didn't know him from a bar of soap, told him to get back off the touchline, emphasising the command with a well-placed shove!
